

Choose the correct sentence. Look at the example.

1. John can choose an apple or a pear.
2. John can choose an apple and a pear.

1. Violet has got a skirt or a jacket.
2. Violet has got a skirt and a jacket.

1. Jim can buy brown shoes or grey shoes.
2. Jim can buy brown shoes and grey shoes.

1. Sophie has got a green bag or a blue bag.
2. Sophie has got a green bag and a blue bag.

1. Steve has got a ball or a cap.
2. Steve has got a ball and a cap.

1. Susan can choose a strawberry ice cream or a chocolate ice cream.
2. Susan can choose a strawberry ice cream and a chocolate ice cream.